

Save the Date

1st International Monothematic
Multidisciplinary Meeting on Congenital Porto-Systemic Shunts

29-30 March, 2019
Paris, France

Why should you attend ?
The goals of this meeting are to:

- Share actual knowledge on those rare vascular malformations
- Discuss research, cases and management
- Create constructive interactions between all specialists interested in this fascinating topic

You should attend if you are interested in porto-systemic shunts as a:

- Physician or ...veterinary
- Surgeon
- Radiologist
- Embryologist
- Pathologist
- Genetician
- Biologist
- Anyone interested in that field

On behalf of the IRCPSS (International Registry Congenital Porto-Systemic shunts)
Organizing committee: Stéphanie FRANCHI-ABELLA, Florent GUERIN, Emmanuel GONZALES, Valérie MCLIN, Dominique DEBRAY

Contact for further information: Simona KORFF – email: simona.korff@hcuge.ch

Program

Recognized specialists from 9 countries will share their experience on the different aspects of this fascinating topic...

Friday 29th of March

- From embryology to anatomic forms
- Lessons from animal and surgical models
- Pathophysiology of Congenital PortoSystemic Shunts
- Diagnosis and management

Saturday 30th of March (morning)

- Sharing experience
- Case based discussions
- International Registry
- Collaborative projects